

Question	Yes	No	Further Comments
Do you support a regional focus for the Dayton area similar to Indianapolis's "unigov" system? Read more...	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
Would you support restructuring residential property taxes to be based on the original purchase price of a home rather than appraisals? Read more...	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Since county operations are quite dependent on property taxes, this would mean that real county revenues would not keep up with inflation. Eventually the county would be starved of funds
Would you support a standard rubric for commercial tax abatement that would ensure that the process is transparent?	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Would you support a single municipal court system for all of Montgomery County similar to how Franklin County operates? Read more...	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Since the choices are "yes' and "no", I would say "no". But I'm open to further investigation of this idea.
Would you support the creation of a searchable database of campaign donors either through the Montgomery County Board of Elections or the Ohio Secretary of State? Read more...	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	This information is already on the Montgomery County BOE site. Why duplicate the work? If the current system needs improvements, we should work with the BOE to improve it.
Do you support a ranked voting system?	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	I would support this, but not sure about the legality of the process as determined by Ohio law
Do you support a year-round school year?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	This should be decided by each school district as to what is best for them.
Do you support using tax dollars to subsidize education programs that have no oversight?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Absolutely not. And education programs should only be funded by each community, not the county.

Do you support eliminating redundant administrative positions? Read more...	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Would you support a state-wide restructuring of counties so that metropolitan do not overlap multiple counties? Read more...	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	Yes, but I see some difficulty with doing this. And, let's say you draw the line today. What do you do when a city grows beyond its line? Restructure again? I can see this would be an ongoing headache.
Would you support reducing the number of counties so that they oversee a single economic region?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
Would you support electronic databases of public records that can be searched by the public?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	Question is too vague. Many public records are already online and searchable.

Other information you would like voters to know about your platform:

Montgomery County should work with the communities to create shared resources to improve efficiencies. But any sharing should be voluntary, not forced. Individual communities should maintain control of their own resources, and should be able to "opt out" of any agreements that they deem have become detrimental to their individual community
